

Hands-on Workshops

The new offering for this year is the organization of our own independent Hands-on Workshop Section. The following excellent presenters were invited to participate this year and SAS Institute will be providing 20-25 computers for our use Monday and Tuesday during the conference.

Five Ways to Create Macro Variables: A Short Introduction to the Macro Language

Arthur L. Carpenter - CA Occidental Consultants

So You're Still Not Using PROC REPORT. Why Not?

Daphne Ewing - Synteract, Inc.

Ray Pass - Ray Pass Consulting

Programming Squared (Writing Programs that Write Programs)

Jim Johnson – Covance

Version 9 Changes and Enhancements

Dana Rafiee - Destiny Corporation

Reading and Writing XML Files from SAS®

Miriam G Cisternas - MGC Data Services

Ricardo A Cisternas - MGC Data Services

SAS with Style: Creating your own ODS Style Template for RTF Output

Lauren Haworth - Genentech, Inc.

An Animated Guide: The Data Step Debugger

Russell M Lavery

Effective Ways of Validating SAS Programs

Sy Truong - Meta-Xceed, Inc.