Copyright Grant: (due March 27, 2020)

Please upload your signed Copyright Grant Form. The form must be signed by all authors. Completed forms are due March 27, 2020. We cannot include a paper in the conference proceedings without a completed copyright grant form. If you cannot upload a signed Copyright Grant Form by March 27, 2020, please submit a Copyright Grant Delay Form by March 27, 2020. The Copyright Grant Delay Form is intended for those that need to put their copyright grant form through an approval process and cannot return the form prior to March 27, 2020. It will automatically allow a week extension and will be due by April 3, 2020.

Enter copyright grant form: No file chosen

Additional Attachment:

If you have additional files you would like to make available to attendees (programming code, for example), please upload them here. We will make them available online with the conference proceedings. We reserve the right to refuse files which are excessive in size. Do not include marketing materials.

If there are multiple files that you wish to include, please package as a zipped file and upload here.

Hands-on Training: Please package all necessary material for the hands-on training as a zipped file and upload here.

For all other sections, uploading additional files is optional. It is not a requirement to upload programming code as a separate file.

Enter additional attachment here: No file chosen

- Enter name of the person presenting and PharmaSUG-assigned paper number and click "Save".
